

legacy society

The Legacy Society celebrates the donors of Hear Indiana who are planning today for a future gift that will support the organization and the families we serve for years to come. Donors who include a bequest in their will, or make arrangements for another type of planned gift, will become honored members of the Hear Indiana Legacy Society.

HEAR NOW AND ALWAYS

Incorporating Hear Indiana into your estate plan is a terrific way to ensure that deaf and hard of hearing Hoosier children go from striving to thriving. Numerous planned giving options can help you achieve your personal philanthropic goals while simultaneously enabling Hear Indiana to provide life-changing support services to children with hearing loss and their families for generations to come.

UPPING HER GAME

Tamika is a veteran of the Indiana Fever, nine-time WNBA All-Star, five-time WNBA Defensive Player of the Year, Hall-of-Famer, and four-time Olympic Gold Medalist! Tamika was diagnosed with a moderate to severe hearing loss when she was a toddler. She has consistently amplified our organization's mission and message: that there are no limits for children who are deaf and hard of hearing. In 2019, Tamika took her commitment to the next level by announcing a planned gift to Hear Indiana.

When I was a child I was ashamed of being different. I wanted to fit in with everyone else. I know that we are all 'wonderfully and skillfully made,' and it's important for those of us who go through impairments, disabilities and issues to reach out and help others. I try not to look at my impairment as a disability, and it gives me a sense of appreciation when I hear stories from parents and kids - with or without disabilities - who look up to me for the struggles I've been through. Because I want every child with hearing loss to have the same opportunities I did growing up, I have chosen to add Hear Indiana to my estate plan. Together we can level the playing field!
