Hear Indiana

Hear Indiana empowers children with hearing loss to thrive through listening and spoken language. As a nonprofit organization, we provide audiology services, speech therapy, parent support, and advocacy to ensure every child has access to the resources they need to succeed. Through innovative programs and dedicated care, we help children hear, speak, and reach their full potential in school and life.

Your Impact

We've provided audiology, speech, and school services to over 2,500 kids to give them access to speech and language. Over 700 campers have developed leadership and self-advocacy skills while having fun and making lifelong memories. We have brought cutting edge research to over 3,000 conference attendees, and we have partnered with universities all over the state to provide placements for over 50 speech and hearing science students. And we're still going strong.

MISSION

To create equal opportunities for children with hearing loss through listening and spoken language.

VISION

Deaf and hard of hearing children will achieve their aspirations and thrive in their communities,

VALUES

We put families first, empowering them with knowledge, advancing innovative listening and spoken language practices, and advocating for equal opportunities for every child with hearing loss.
